One Community Bank to Host First-Time Homebuyer Seminars

(April 2024) – One Community Bank is delighted to host a series of First-Time Homebuyer Seminars across South-Central Wisconsin this spring and summer. For those who are starting to explore the idea of home ownership, experts from OCB will provide details for each step in the home buying process and answer questions.

The events will cover various topics including searching for the right home, getting qualified, credit management, down payments, closing processes, and more. Save the dates for the upcoming seminars across multiple communities:

- April 18th in McFarland, WI
- May 2nd in Madison, WI
- May 15th in Middleton, WI
- June 12th in Adams, WI
- July 17th in Stoughton, WI

These in-person seminars are free to attend. Register online to reserve a spot, space is limited. Additional event details and updates will be sent to registered attendees closer to the event date. Updates will also be shared on One Community Bank's Facebook page and LinkedIn page.
