Kraus-Anderson completes car dealerships in Mount Pleasant and Bristol, Wis.

RACINE, Wis. (February 2021) – The Madison office of Kraus-Anderson Construction has completed the construction of Racine Honda in Mount Pleasant, Wis., and Kenosha Subaru in Bristol, Wis. Both car dealerships are owned by Home Run Auto Group.

Racine Honda, a new $9.1 million dealership, located at 1701 E Frontage Rd. in Mount Pleasant, was developed by Janesville, Wis.-based M&J Real Estate. The new two-story building replaces the existing dealership at 9501 Washington Ave. The 45,000-square-foot building features a new showroom and a full-service department with 34 bays, including two detail bays and a car wash. The dealership also includes new sales and finance offices and a storage mezzanine.

Kenosha Subaru, located at 7900 120th Ave. in Bristol, features a $1.9 million, 7,300-square-foot expansion that added 11 service bays to the service department and renovated the offices and restrooms.

Both dealerships were designed by Johnsburg, Ill.-based architect R.B. Custom Designs, Inc.

COVID-19: KRAUS-ANDERSON'S COMMITMENT TO JOB SAFETY

As the world continues to deal with and adapt to the unprecedented challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic, Kraus-Anderson's top priority remains safety. The company has implemented stringent social distancing practices and other elevated safety protocol on construction job sites, details of which can be found at <https://www.krausanderson.com/about/kraus-anderson-responds-to-covid-19/>.
