

Casey Liakos Joins The QTI Group as Vice President of Executive and Professional Search

Madison, WI –March 06, 2024 (The QTI Group) – The QTI Group (QTI), the Madison-based staffing and human resources consulting firm with expertise in industrial, administrative, professional, and executive recruitment as well as compensation consulting, announced the appointment of Casey Liakos to Vice President of Executive and Professional Search.

In his role, Liakos will oversee QTI's Executive, Professional, and Board of Directors Search Team as it continues to expand and partner with companies across Wisconsin and the Midwest to recruit for high-level executive roles. Liakos is excited to join a team that can broadly address talent and people needs, with staffing, recruiting, and consulting solutions that bring value to clients.

Liakos brings 14 years of staffing and talent searching experience to QTI, with just over six years experience as president of a local talent acquisition firm, where Liakos was named the 2020 InBusiness Small Business Executive of the Year. A Wisconsin native and an avid Badgers, Brewers, and Packers fan, Liakos' industry expertise and local connection are the perfect combination to drive QTI forward.

"I see The QTI Group as a cornerstone in the Madison community. I have a passion for connecting with people and connecting people to one another, which has driven my entire career. I believe The QTI Group is the best place for me to continue to grow in the industry and support my community," says Liakos.

QTI's new leadership is the result of thoughtful preparation as the company positions itself for growth and success in 2024.

About The QTI Group

Founded in 1957 as a small staffing agency, The QTI Group has grown to be a full-service, privately owned human resources firm. QTI's key service areas include staffing, professional, technical, and executive search, and HR consulting. With a QTI has a people first focus and a commitment to helping business reach their full potential through people, The QTI Group is headquartered in Madison, WI and has four branch locations in Wisconsin.

###