

Contact Information:
Nicole Ring
608.949.6505
nicole.ring@qtigroup.com

Jason Loewi Promoted to The QTI Group's Vice President of Staffing

Madison, WI-April 29, 2024 (The QTI Group) – The QTI Group (QTI), the southcentral Wisconsin staffing and human resources consulting firm headquartered in Madison, announced the promotion of QTI employee Jason Loewi from Director of Staffing to Vice President of Staffing.

As the newly appointed Vice President of Staffing, Loewi will play a pivotal role in QTI's continued growth and success in industrial and administrative staffing across five branch locations. He looks forward to continuing to build strong customer relationships and deliver value to QTI's clients. The expertise, dedication, and experience Loewi brings to the new role mark an exciting new chapter for QTI.

Loewi's career at QTI began as a young child, helping the family business by picking up trash in the parking lot on weekends. After graduating from the University of Vermont, Loewi joined QTI as a recruiter. Over the past 12 years, he has worked at nearly every QTI branch and shared his passion for finding creative staffing solutions with clients statewide. Loewi is dedicated to being involved in his community and currently serves on the Board of Wisconsin Staffing Association.

"Staffing is a unique field in that your business is people. Finding good people good jobs is at the root of what we do, and serving as VP of Staffing is the next step to helping employees and businesses across Wisconsin meet their employment needs," says Loewi.

About The QTI Group

Founded in 1957 as a small staffing agency, The QTI Group has grown to be a full-service, privately owned human resources firm. QTI's key service areas include staffing, professional, technical, and executive search, and HR consulting. QTI has a people-first focus and a commitment to helping business reach their full potential through people, The QTI Group is headquartered in Madison, WI, and has five branch locations in Wisconsin.

###